CHOCOLATE SPA TREATMENTS FOR THE SERIOUSLY ADDICTED.

THE SPA AT THE HOTEL HERSHEY

Hershey Park, Pennsylvania
While the amusement park and streets of candy might bring the juvenile to mind, there are plenty of more mature ways to have fun with chocolate. The Spa at the Hotel Hershey adds chocolate to the menu in cocoa massages and chocolate fondue body wraps.

THE BROADMOOR SPA

Colorado Springs, Colorado
Should you want to treat the little one in your life to some sweet pampering, the Broadmoor Spa at the Broadmoor Resort in Colorado offers a chocolate manicure and pedicure for children 10 and under.

LA POSADA DE SANTA FE RESORT & SPA

Santa Fe, New Mexico
La Posada in New Mexico takes its cues from the culture and history of the Southwest. Here, you'll find exotic twists on some of the most luxurious body treatments — a deep tissue massage is known as Rolling Thunder while the more traditional Swedish-style massage is called Flowing Water. But, it's the chocolate chile wrap that should engage all your senses and leave your skin glowing.
